

REAL-TIME INNOVATIONS, INC. AUTOMOTIVE DEVELOPMENT SOFTWARE LICENSE AGREEMENT

This Automotive Development Software License Agreement (“SLA”) is between Real-Time Innovations, Inc. (“RTI”) and the customer identified on the signature block below or, if no signature block exists, the customer identified on the Ordering Document (as defined below) (“Licensee”). It is effective as of the date of the last signature below, or if no signature block exists, the date the Software is first downloaded by Licensee (“Effective Date”).

1. Definitions.

- 1.1 “A-Sample” means the initial engineering sample or first functional prototype created solely for design and engineering validation, including limited internal testing to prove core functionality.
- 1.2 “Affiliate” means any entity that directly or indirectly, through one or more intermediaries, controls, or is controlled by, or is under common control with, such party, where “control” means at least a 50% ownership interest in such entity or the power to direct the management of such entity, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by contract, or otherwise.
- 1.3 “Development” is developing code that links to and uses the Software either directly or through any number of internally-developed “wrapper” Application Programming Interface (API) layers. Development includes making copies of the library portions of the Software (in subdirectory “/lib”) in object code form and linking or physically incorporating the copies into a Target Application. Development includes any use of the Software’s programming and analysis tools, XML-based or other configuration, or other components of the Software with a Graphical User Interface (GUI).
- 1.4 “Engineering Build” or “Engineering Release” means beta, experimental, early access, field builds, and/or non-general access or non-maintenance release versions of the Software, including any Software designated accordingly on the Licensee’s LAC or accompanying documentation.
- 1.5 “Experimental Features” means any components, features, or portions of the Software that are identified in the corresponding source code, release notes, or other related documentation as experimental, beta, early access, or similar designation.
- 1.6 “Intellectual Property Rights” means any and all registered and unregistered rights granted, applied for, or otherwise now or hereafter in existence under or related to any patent, copyright, trademark, trade secret, database protection, or other intellectual property rights Laws, and all similar or equivalent rights or forms of protection, in any part of the world.
- 1.7 “Internal End Use” is use of the Software in a Target Application to be operated by the Licensee to produce direct revenue or benefit to Licensee rather than sold or licensed to a third party.
- 1.8 A License Acknowledgement Certificate (“LAC”) is a separate document issued by RTI to Licensee specifying, as applicable, the Software, number and type of licenses, Project, Site, License Term, Licensed Platform(s), and references special terms (if any) and other details of the licenses that Licensee is granted. Licensee may have multiple LACs; each forms a separate agreement that is governed by the terms of this SLA.
- 1.9 The “License Term” is the active period of this SLA with respect to each specific license. It is specified for each license in the LAC.
- 1.10 A “Member” is a person who, at any time in the preceding six (6) months: (a) develops code that links to and uses the Software either directly or through any number of internally-developed “wrapper” Application Programmer Interface (API) layers; or (b) uses the Software’s programming and analysis tools, XML-based or other configuration, or other components of the Software with a Graphical User Interface (GUI).
- 1.11 A Maintenance and Support Certificate (“MSC”) is a separate document issued by RTI to Licensee specifying the details of the maintenance and support coverage to which Licensee is entitled for a Project. Licensee may have multiple MSCs or none.

- 1.12 “Ordering Document” means the LAC, quotation, ordering document or other confirmatory contract document mutually agreed to by the parties in writing and delivered to Licensee as part of the Software ordering process.
- 1.13 A “Project” is a concerted undertaking by an identified team to design or produce a Target Application or connected set of Target Applications that has a specified scope of functionality, as specified in the LAC.
- 1.14 “Reference System” means a vehicle or unit component for which (i) there is no predefined Vehicle Program; (ii) there is intended to be a blueprint for multiple Vehicle Programs with distinct development teams; or (iii) it is part of a functional prototype.
- 1.15 “Services” means any installation, support, training, consultancy service, product enhancement, product extension, or other services offered by RTI.
- 1.16 A “Site” is a physical location or set of locations, including reasonable remote access, as specified in the LAC.
- 1.17 The “Software” means all RTI software licensed by RTI to Licensee and the related documentation, which may be more fully described in the Ordering Document(s).
- 1.18 A “Target Application” is a user-developed software program that requires physical incorporation or linking of portions of the Software to execute.

2. General Ordering and Payment Terms.

- 2.1 From time to time, Licensee may order licenses, support, or maintenance from RTI by submitting a Purchase Order or other Ordering Document. Each Ordering Document shall specify a license for the components of the Software. Upon RTI’s processing of a Purchase Order or other Ordering Document, the Software will be delivered electronically via RTI’s Customer Portal. If delivery on physical media is required, Licensee will be responsible for any applicable additional taxes and/or fees. Any physical media will be shipped within ten (10) business days of receipt of a complete Purchase Order via Federal Express or an equivalent shipping method, unless otherwise agreed in writing.
- 2.2 Licensee shall pay the license and any other fees set forth in the Ordering Document and shall reimburse RTI for all expenses reasonably incurred in connection with this SLA. All amounts to be paid by Licensee hereunder shall be due and payable thirty (30) days after Licensee’s receipt of the applicable invoice. If invoice upon delivery is required, additional fees will apply. Unless otherwise noted, all pricing is in U.S. Dollars. All payments not made by Licensee when due shall be subject to late charges of the lesser of (a) one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month of the overdue amount or (b) the maximum amount permitted under applicable law. RTI may limit access to or the functionality of Software or suspend the provision of Services until such amounts are paid. Subscriptions are non-cancellable before the end of the period of performance. Questions regarding shipments or payment can be sent to AccountsReivable@rti.com.
- 2.3 Licensee shall pay all sales, use, excise, value-added (VAT), goods and services (GST), and other similar taxes, as well as any applicable customs duties or import fees relating to, or under, this SLA, exclusive of taxes based on or measured by RTI’s net income, unless Licensee is exempt from the payment of such taxes and provides RTI with evidence of such exemption. For Licensees in the U.S., please provide RTI with the appropriate resale certificate, exempt use certificate, or direct pay permit for Licensee’s state. If Licensee’s state taxes electronically downloaded software and RTI does not have a certificate on file, RTI will be required to include sales tax on the applicable invoices. For Licensees in VAT (Value Added Tax) countries, RTI is a U.S. entity and the reverse charge mechanism applies (see article 44 of the VAT Directive).

3. General License Terms.

- 3.1 RTI hereby grants to Licensee, under the Intellectual Property Rights that RTI owns or controls, a non-exclusive, non-transferable (except as expressly permitted herein), worldwide, revocable (in accordance with the terms and conditions of this SLA) license, during the applicable License Term, to use the Software indicated on the applicable LAC, in accordance with, and subject to, the additional terms and conditions of this SLA and the applicable LAC.
- 3.2 This Section 3 applies to all licenses granted under this SLA. The Software is licensed, not sold, to Licensee for use only under the terms of this SLA and RTI reserves all rights not expressly granted to Licensee. RTI owns all right, title, and interest, including all Intellectual Property Rights, in and to the Software, including all modifications thereto made by or on behalf of RTI. Licenses are non-transferable and non-exclusive. Use of each license is limited to the designated Licensee, Site(s), Project, and Licensed Platform(s) and to the License Term, all as defined in the LAC specifying the grant. Licensee may not use the Software for Internal End Use, unless such use is expressly permitted in the LAC. If Licensee wishes to use the Software outside of the License Term, Licensee will need to acquire an appropriate license. For all licenses with a specified numerical limit, Licensee agrees to provide RTI with good-faith estimates of actual license usage annually and, upon request by RTI, certify compliance with the requirements of this SLA or purchase additional licenses or maintenance to reflect actual usage at RTI's then-current pricing. Additionally, RTI may, upon reasonable notice and during regular business hours, audit Licensee's books and records to confirm or otherwise determine Licensee's compliance with the license restrictions and payment obligations hereunder. If an audit reveals an excess use or underpayment greater than ten percent (10%), Licensee shall be responsible for the reasonable third-party audit costs for the audit. Licensee may make a reasonable number of copies of the Software strictly for backup or archival purposes. Any such backup copy shall remain RTI's exclusive property and must include all copyright or other proprietary rights notices contained in the original. Unless specified in the LAC, Target Applications may not contain software development functionality, RTI source code, or components of the Software with a Graphical User Interface (GUI).

- 3.3 The Software may be an Engineering Build or contain Experimental Features. Experimental Features and Engineering Builds (a) have not gone through RTI's standard commercial testing; (b) shall not be distributed or sublicensed to third parties; (c) shall not be used in any production system; (d) are not subject to maintenance or support from RTI; (e) may not be included in future releases of the Software; and (f) ARE PROVIDED "AS-IS" WITH NO WARRANTY WHATSOEVER.

4. License Types.

4.1 Reference System License.

4.1.1 If a Licensee has a LAC that specifies a Reference System License, then the quantity of Members indicated on the LAC represents the maximum number of licensed Members that may use the Software for Development with the following additional restrictions:

4.1.1.1 Should a Project contain individuals that do not meet the definition of a Member, such individuals may install the Software and execute Target Applications for reasons other than Development (e.g., for product validation testing) without charge.

4.1.1.2 Licensee's use of the Software is restricted solely to a Reference System for determining the suitability of the Software for Licensee's application, exploratory development, proof of concept prototyping through to A-sample development. Licensee may not use the Software in a production program with intent to develop a system for distribution, deployment, or operation ("Vehicle Program").

4.1.1.3 RTI reserves the right, upon reasonable notice, to examine Licensee's records regarding the potential identification of one or more Vehicle Programs.

4.2 Project License.

4.2.1 If a Licensee has a LAC that specifies a Project License, then the quantity of Members indicated on the LAC represents the maximum number of licensed Members for the Project. Should the Project contain individuals that do not meet the definition of a Member, such individuals may install the Software and execute Target Applications for reasons other than Development (e.g., for product validation testing) without charge.

4.2.2 RTI reserves the right, upon reasonable notice, to examine Licensee's records regarding the number of Members for a particular Project.

4.3 Individual License.

4.3.1 If a Licensee has a LAC that specifies a number of Individual Licenses, then Licensee may designate that number of individual persons as licensed users ("Licensed Users"). Each Licensed User is considered a Member and may use the Software for Development on any number of Projects. Licensee personnel, including those not designated as a Licensed User, may install the Software and execute Target Applications for reasons other than Development (e.g., for product validation testing) without charge, provided that such uses are to support a Project on which there is at least one (1) Licensed User and that such uses are not otherwise prohibited by this SLA or applicable LAC.

- 4.3.2 If the Licensee has an applicable MSC, each Licensed User may access the support listed on the MSC.
- 4.3.3 Each Licensed User must be identified to RTI by registering a unique userid and password which cannot be shared with other persons. A commercially reasonable number of times per year, Licensee may deactivate a userid and then designate a different person as a Licensed User by registering with RTI the new person's unique userid and password.

4.4 Source License.

- 4.4.1 If Licensee has a LAC that specifies a Source License, then Licensee may use and modify the RTI source code provided by RTI to Licensee and build object versions of the original or modified source code.
- 4.4.2 If Licensee modifies the Software (which, for the sake of clarity, includes source code) and provides such modifications to RTI ("Provided Modifications") then Licensee grants RTI a perpetual, worldwide, non-exclusive, assignable, paid-up license to use, copy, modify, distribute, create derivative works, sublicense, and otherwise fully utilize the Provided Modifications without acknowledgment of ownership. Licensee also assigns or licenses to RTI any other Intellectual Property Rights required to fully use the Provided Modifications for any purpose. RTI may incorporate Licensee's Provided Modifications into any future version of the Software or into other products at its sole option without fees or attribution.
- 4.4.3 If Licensee modifies the Software, then the warranties provided under this SLA shall not apply to the extent that an issue is exposed or associated with the modifications created by Licensee. Unless agreed otherwise, RTI has no obligation to support the modified Software.
- 4.4.4 A Source License does not grant other rights. A license described in Sections 4.1-4.3 above is required for Development and a production license (as provided under a separate agreement) is required to create or distribute Target Applications.

5. Additional Restrictions.

- 5.1 Licensee may not market, distribute, or transfer copies of the Software to others, except to an Affiliate of Licensee; provided, that Licensee agrees to: (a) provide written notice to RTI at least thirty (30) days prior to such transfer, (b) ensure such Affiliate complies with the terms of this SLA, and (c) remain responsible for all use of the Software by such Affiliate. Licensee may not rent, lease, loan, or otherwise provide the Software to any third parties except as provided herein.
- 5.2 Except as provided herein, Licensee may not copy, modify, or create derivative works of the Software.
- 5.3 Licensee may not reverse engineer, disassemble, or adapt the Software, provided that, if Licensee has a Source License, Licensee may modify the Software as permitted under Section 4.4.
- 5.4 Licensee may not use the Software if Licensee is a direct competitor or acting on behalf of a direct competitor of RTI, except with RTI's prior written consent. Licensee may not (a) use the Software for competitive purposes, including performing performance or vulnerability tests nor (b) disclose results of any tests to third parties without RTI's prior written consent.
- 5.5 Licensee may not remove any proprietary notices from the Software, including the associated documentation.

6. Limited Warranty.

- 6.1 Any licenses provided without a fee and/or Engineering Builds or Engineering Releases (collectively "Excluded Licenses") are provided "as is" with no warranty whatsoever.

- 6.2 The Software Warranty included in Section 6.2.1-4 below represents the only warranty provided for the Software in this SLA and does not apply to Excluded Licenses or Experimental Features (“Software Warranty”).
- 6.2.1 RTI warrants that the Software will perform substantially in accordance with the accompanying written materials for an installation period of ninety (90) days from the date that the Software is first downloaded by Licensee.
- 6.2.2 RTI warrants that, other than documented license management technology, the Software as well as any medium used to provide the Software, will be free of viruses, worms, Trojan horses, time bombs, back or trap doors, or other debilitating or disabling devices or malicious code at the time of delivery.
- 6.2.3 RTI warrants that the portions of the Software that Licensee may integrate into Target Applications is not subject to restrictions or licenses that would require Licensee to redistribute any of Licensee’s source code.
- 6.2.4 RTI warrants that it has the right to grant Licensee the licenses herein.
- 6.3 RTI does not warrant that the Software will meet Licensee’s requirements or operate free from error.
- 6.4 RTI warrants that it will use commercially reasonable efforts to perform the Services in a timely, professional manner (“Services Warranty”).
- 6.5 This limited warranty gives Licensee specific legal rights. Licensee may have others, which vary under different jurisdictions. In addition to the installation warranty period, Licensee may elect to purchase support or maintenance subject to RTI’s policies then in effect. RTI’s Maintenance Policy and Support Policy can be found online at <https://www.rti.com/terms>.
- 6.6 RTI’s entire liability and Licensee’s sole and exclusive remedy for any breach of the foregoing Software Warranty shall be, at RTI’s option, to either: (a) return the price paid for the Software; or (b) repair or replace the Software. Any replacement Software will be warranted for the remainder of the original warranty period or thirty (30) days, whichever is longer. Any such liability shall be subject to Licensee’s prompt written notification of a warranty breach.
- 6.7 Licensee’s sole remedy, and RTI’s sole liability, for breach of the foregoing Services Warranty is for RTI to re-perform the Services. RTI makes no warranty that the Services will be completed to Licensee’s satisfaction. If completing the Services or bringing the Services into compliance will result in unreasonable efforts, both parties agree to negotiate in good faith to arrive at a resolution. If the parties are unable to reach a mutually agreeable resolution within thirty (30) days following the commencement of such negotiations, RTI, in its sole discretion, may resolve the issue by providing Licensee with a refund of an equitable portion of the fees paid specifically for the non-conforming Services. RTI MAKES NO OTHER WARRANTY WITH RESPECT TO THE SERVICES. ANY SOFTWARE, DOCUMENTS, OR OTHER DELIVERABLES RESULTING FROM SERVICES ARE PROVIDED “AS IS” AND WITHOUT WARRANTY OF ANY KIND, WHETHER EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING THE IMPLIED WARRANTIES AND CONDITIONS OF MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE.
- 6.8 EXCEPT FOR THE WARRANTIES EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS SECTION 6, RTI MAKES NO OTHER WARRANTIES WHATSOEVER WITH RESPECT TO THE SOFTWARE. THE WARRANTY, OBLIGATIONS, AND LIABILITY OF RTI AND LICENSEE’S RIGHTS AND REMEDIES SET FORTH IN THIS SLA ARE EXCLUSIVE AND ARE IN LIEU OF, AND LICENSEE HEREBY WAIVES AND RELEASES ALL OTHER IMPLIED WARRANTIES, OBLIGATIONS, REPRESENTATIONS, OR LIABILITIES, ARISING BY LAW, IN CONTRACT, CIVIL LIABILITY OR IN TORT, OR OTHERWISE, INCLUDING (a) ANY IMPLIED WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY OR OF FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, AND (b) ANY OTHER OBLIGATION OR LIABILITY ON THE PART OF RTI TO ANYONE OF ANY NATURE WHATSOEVER BY REASON OF THE DESIGN, IMPLEMENTATION, SALE, REPAIR, OR USE OF THE SOFTWARE OR RELATED PRODUCTS AND SERVICES DELIVERED OR RENDERED HEREUNDER OR OTHERWISE.
- 6.9 NO ORAL OR WRITTEN INFORMATION OR ADVICE GIVEN BY RTI, ITS DEALERS, DISTRIBUTORS, AGENTS, OR EMPLOYEES SHALL CREATE A WARRANTY OR IN ANY WAY INCREASE THE SCOPE OF THIS WARRANTY AND LICENSEE MAY NOT RELY ON ANY SUCH INFORMATION OR ADVICE.
- 6.10 The warranties set forth herein do not apply and become null and void if Licensee breaches any material section of this SLA.

7. Intellectual Property Infringement Indemnity. RTI will defend any suit brought against Licensee and will pay all damages finally awarded in such suit insofar as such suit is based on a claim that the Software as provided to Licensee infringes a third-party patent or copyright, provided that RTI is notified promptly of such claim and at its expense is given full and complete authority (including settlement authority), information, and assistance by Licensee (at Licensee's expense) for such defense. In the event that the Software is held in any such suit to infringe such a right and its use is enjoined, or if in the opinion of RTI the Software is likely to become the subject of such a claim, RTI at its own election and expense will either: (a) procure for Licensee the right to continue using the Software; or (b) modify or replace the Software so that it becomes non-infringing while giving equivalent performance. In the event that (a) or (b) above are not, in RTI's sole determination, reasonably practicable, then RTI may terminate this SLA and refund an equitable portion of money paid by Licensee in connection with the licenses granted hereunder. The Intellectual Property Infringement Indemnity provided herein shall not apply to the extent that the alleged infringement arises from (x) use of the Software in combination with data, software, hardware, or other technology not provided by RTI or authorized by RTI in writing; or (y) modifications to the Software not made by RTI. THIS SECTION 7 SETS FORTH LICENSEE'S SOLE REMEDIES AND RTI'S SOLE LIABILITY AND OBLIGATION FOR ANY ACTUAL, THREATENED, OR ALLEGED CLAIMS THAT THE SOFTWARE OR DOCUMENTATION INFRINGES ANY INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS OF ANY THIRD PARTY.

8. LIMITATIONS OF LIABILITY.

- 8.1 RTI SHALL NOT BE LIABLE FOR ANY SPECIAL, INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, PUNITIVE, OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES OR FOR DAMAGES FOR LOSS OF BUSINESS, LOSS OF PROFITS, LOSS OF GOODWILL OR REPUTATION, COSTS OF COVER, OR THE LIKE ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THIS SLA, ANY ORDER, OR THE SOFTWARE OR SERVICES, OR THE USE OR INABILITY TO USE THE SOFTWARE OR SERVICES (WHETHER ARISING IN CONTRACT, TORT, NEGLIGENCE, OR OTHERWISE) EVEN IF RTI OR ITS REPRESENTATIVES HAVE BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES.
- 8.2 IN PARTICULAR, LICENSEE RECOGNIZES THAT THE SOFTWARE MAY BE PART OF A SYSTEM USED TO CONTROL EXPENSIVE OR DANGEROUS EQUIPMENT. RTI SHALL NOT BE LIABLE FOR ANY DAMAGE OR INJURY (INCLUDING DEATH) RESULTING FROM THE OPERATION OF SUCH EQUIPMENT. LICENSEE ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT LICENSEE IS RESPONSIBLE FOR TAKING STEPS TO PROTECT AGAINST TARGET APPLICATION AND SYSTEM FAILURES, INCLUDING PROVIDING BACK-UP OR SHUTDOWN MECHANISMS. LICENSEE IS ULTIMATELY RESPONSIBLE FOR VERIFYING AND VALIDATING THE SUITABILITY OF RTI SOFTWARE FOR LICENSEE'S INTENDED USE. EACH END USER SYSTEM IS CUSTOMIZED AND DIFFERS FROM RTI'S TESTING PLATFORMS AND LICENSEE MAY USE RTI SOFTWARE IN COMBINATION WITH OTHER PRODUCTS IN A MANNER NOT EVALUATED OR CONTEMPLATED BY RTI. Licensee agrees to indemnify, defend, and hold RTI harmless from any claim, lawsuit, legal proceeding, settlement, or judgment (including RTI's reasonable United States and local attorneys' and expert witnesses' fees and costs) arising out of or in connection with the copying, marketing, performance, or other distribution of Licensee's Target Applications.
- 8.3 THE AGGREGATE LIABILITY OF RTI FOR ANY CLAIMS ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THIS SLA, ANY ORDER, OR THE SOFTWARE OR SERVICES, OR THE USE OR NON-USE THEREOF, INCLUDING ANY BREACH OF WARRANTY CLAIM SUBJECT TO SECTION 6, REGARDLESS OF THE FORM OF ACTION OR CLAIM, SHALL NOT EXCEED THE GREATER OF (a) WITH RESPECT TO ANY SOFTWARE, THE AGGREGATE LICENSE FEES LICENSEE PAID FOR THAT SOFTWARE, AND WITH RESPECT TO ANY SERVICES, THE AGGREGATE SERVICES FEES LICENSEE PAID FOR THOSE SERVICES, IN EACH CASE IN THE TWELVE (12) MONTHS LEADING TO THE CLAIM OR (b) TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS ($10,000).
- 8.4 THE LIMITED WARRANTY, LIMITED REMEDIES AND LIMITED LIABILITY SPECIFIED IN THIS SLA ARE FUNDAMENTAL ELEMENTS OF THE BASIS OF THE BARGAIN BETWEEN RTI AND LICENSEE. RTI WOULD NOT BE ABLE TO PROVIDE THE SOFTWARE WITHOUT SUCH LIMITATIONS. THE FOREGOING LIMITATIONS OF LIABILITY SHALL APPLY NOTWITHSTANDING THE FAILURE OF ANY ESSENTIAL REMEDY. EXCEPT WITH RESPECT TO ANY THIRD-PARTY CLAIM, LICENSEE AGREES THAT ANY ACTION OR CLAIM AGAINST RTI ARISING FROM OR RELATING TO THIS SLA, ANY ORDER, OR THE SOFTWARE OR SERVICES SHALL BE DEEMED IRREVOCABLY WAIVED IF NOT INSTITUTED WITHIN ONE (1) YEAR FROM THE EVENT GIVING RISE TO SUCH CLAIM OR ACTION.

9. Third-Party and Open Source Software.

- 9.1 The Software incorporates third-party software, components, and libraries, which may include open source software (collectively, “Third-Party Software”). Usage of Third-Party Software is subject to the terms, conditions, and notices set forth in the associated Third-Party Software documentation or software bill of materials included in the Software installation package or at <https://community.rti.com/documentation>, which are incorporated herein by reference. All warranties, support, and liability obligations set forth in this SLA are provided solely by RTI and not by any Third-Party Software licensors or contributors. To the extent the terms of a Third-Party Software license (e.g., an open source license) grant Licensee rights that supersede, or entail obligations that conflict with, the terms of this SLA, the terms of such Third-Party Software license shall control solely with respect to such Third-Party Software.
- 9.2 If required by the respective licenses, source code for the modified open source works is available by emailing a request to “license@rti.com”.

10. Support and Maintenance.

- 10.1 RTI shall have no obligation under this SLA for corrections of errors or problems which are due to a breach by Licensee of the terms of this SLA, or which cannot be remedied due to the operational characteristics of the computer equipment on which the Software is used.
- 10.2 If Licensee has an MSC, then Licensee is eligible to receive support and/or maintenance for the Project specified by, and subject to the terms of, the MSC during the Active Dates listed therein. Such support and/or maintenance shall be governed by the terms of RTI’s Support Policy and Maintenance Policy, located at <https://www.rti.com/terms>.
- 10.3 Except as may be provided above or in a separate RTI Maintenance agreement between RTI and Licensee, if any, RTI is under no obligation to maintain or support the Software supplied to Licensee and RTI has no obligation to furnish Licensee with any further assistance, documentation, or information of any nature.
- 10.4 Licensee is solely responsible for the support and maintenance of all portions of any Target Applications developed by Licensee.
- 10.5 RTI shall be considered an independent contractor, not an employee. Either party may terminate the Services with thirty (30) day notice. If the termination takes place before annual Services expire, RTI shall refund Licensee an amount corresponding to the unused portion of the Services. Both parties agree to mitigate costs after termination.

11. IP Rights in Services Performed.

- 11.1 From time to time, Licensee may provide suggestions or ideas to RTI for modifying RTI’s Software or Services. Licensee hereby grants RTI a perpetual, irrevocable, worldwide license to use any such suggestions or ideas, and any and all Intellectual Property Rights associated therein (“Feedback”) during the term of this SLA, without compensation, without any obligation to report on such use, and without any other restriction. RTI’s rights granted in the previous sentence include the right to exploit Feedback in any and every way, as well as the right to grant sublicenses.
- 11.2 Material and associated Intellectual Property Rights developed by a party prior to or outside the scope of Services described on the Ordering Document that is prepared by RTI or (if applicable) Statement of Work (“Pre-Existing IP”) shall be owned by the developing party. Provided, however, that RTI shall own all rights, title, and interest in all scripts, methodologies, processes, and documentation and all intellectual properties rights therein, developed during the provision of the Services involving (a) implementation or installation of the Software into Licensee’s environment (b) configuration of workflow or reporting capabilities of the Software, (c) optimization of the use of the Software in Licensee’s environment, and/or (d) any intellectual property that is inseparable from or an extension of RTI products or services (collectively, the “RTI-Owned Work Product”). Any software that is RTI’s intellectual property (including RTI-Owned Work Product) delivered as stand alone software components or plug in modules that are first created during the Services shall be owned by RTI. Where such components or plug in modules are specifically identified in writing by RTI as “Perpetually Licensed RTI Items”, RTI grants a nonexclusive, worldwide license to use, modify, sublicense, and otherwise fully utilize such newly created RTI intellectual property without attribution only in connection with Licensee’s use of the Software. All other RTI-Owned Work Product is licensed to Licensee under the same terms as the underlying Software licensed under the applicable LAC and this SLA.

12. Publicity. Licensee grants RTI a license to use Licensee's trademarks in RTI's promotional materials, including RTI's website. Any use of Licensee's trademarks shall be in accordance with Licensee's then-current trademark usage guidelines provided to RTI. Licensee and RTI agree to issue a press release summarizing the nature of the relationship created by this SLA. Both parties reserve the right to approve such release before issue.

13. Confidentiality.

13.1 For the purposes of this SLA, "Confidential Information" means all information, material, or data provided by RTI or its representatives to the Licensee that is designated as confidential or otherwise reasonably appears to be confidential due to the nature of the information or circumstances of disclosure. This includes trade secrets and non-publicly available pricing information, software programs and source code (excluding Software properly included in Target Applications), business plans, financial information, and technical information. Licensee will not disclose the Confidential Information to third parties, except to employees or contractors of Licensee who are required to have the information in order to carry out the purposes authorized by this SLA; provided, that such person to whom Confidential Information is disclosed is aware of its confidential nature and complies with this Section 13 as if it were a party to this SLA. Licensee shall treat the Confidential Information with the same degree of care as it treats its own confidential information of like kind, which shall be no less than a reasonable degree of care. Licensee may disclose the Confidential Information to the extent required by law, any court, any governmental, regulatory or supervisory authority (including any regulated investment exchange) or any other authority of competent jurisdiction; provided, that Licensee promptly notifies RTI before making any disclosure and limits the disclosure to the maximum extent possible. Licensee shall give notice to RTI of any unauthorized misuse, disclosure, theft or loss of the Confidential Information immediately upon becoming aware of the same.

13.2 RTI considers the Software to contain valuable trade secrets of RTI, the unauthorized disclosure of which could cause irreparable harm to RTI. Licensee agrees not to disclose the Software or any documentation which accompanies the Software to any third parties and not to use the Software other than for the purposes authorized by this SLA. Licensee also agrees that performance, functionality, or other competitive evaluation results shall not be disclosed to third parties without RTI's prior written consent. Licensee shall require subcontractors to enter into appropriate non-disclosure obligations with respect to the Software and this confidentiality obligation must continue after any termination of this SLA.

14. Termination. Unless terminated in accordance with the terms hereof, this SLA will terminate when all licenses granted hereunder have reached the end of their respective License Term unless terminated due to breach. For clarity, if the License Term of any license granted is designated as "Permanent" in the LAC, then this SLA will continue indefinitely unless terminated due to breach. In the event of a breach of this SLA by either party, the other party may terminate this SLA if such breach is not cured within ten (10) days of written notice. Upon termination, Licensee agrees not to use the Software for any purpose whatsoever and (except for reasonable backup archives) to destroy the Software and any copies then in Licensee's possession or control, and (on request) certify in writing or via e-mail to RTI that the Software was destroyed. The following sections will survive termination of this SLA: (a) any obligation to pay for RTI's Software or RTI Services rendered before termination; (b) Sections 8 (Limitation of Liability), 13 (Confidentiality), 17 (Privacy Policy), 18 (Additional Terms and Conditions), and 20 (Dispute Resolution); and (c) any other section of this SLA that must survive to fulfill its essential purpose. The remedies specified in this SLA shall be in addition to any other remedies available to RTI.

15. Export Control. The Software is subject to United States Export Administration and Regulations. Downloading, installing, or using the Software, or selecting the online "Accept License SLA" button is a confirmation of Licensee's SLA that Licensee (including all Members and Projects) complies, now and during any use term, with all domestic and international export laws and regulations that apply to the Software. These laws include restrictions on destinations, end users and end use. If the Software is exported from the United States or re-exported from a foreign destination, Licensee shall ensure that the distribution and export/re-export or import of the Software complies with all laws, regulations, orders, or other restrictions of the U.S. Export Administration Regulations.

- 16. Government End Users. If the Software is acquired by or on behalf of a unit or agency of the United States Government, this Section 16 applies. The Software: (a) was developed at private expense, (b) is a trade secret of RTI for all purposes of the Freedom of Information Act, (c) is a “Commercial Item”, as that term is defined at 48 C.F.R. 2.101, consisting of “Commercial Computer Software” and “Commercial Computer Software Documentation”, as such terms are used in 48 C.F.R. 12.212 or 48 C.F.R. 227.7202, as applicable, (d) in all respects is proprietary data belonging solely to RTI, and (e) is unpublished and all rights are reserved under the copyright laws of the United States. Consistent with 48 C.F.R. 12.212 or 48 C.F.R. 227.7202-1 through 227.7202-4, as applicable, the Commercial Computer Software and Commercial Computer Software Documentation are being licensed to U.S. Government end users (x) only as Commercial Items and (y) with only those rights as are granted to all other end-users pursuant to the terms and conditions herein.
- 17. Privacy Policy. In addition to providing Licensee access to our Software for the purposes specified in this SLA, RTI may offer certain products, services, features, or licenses in order to learn more about how users interact with our Software and to provide Licensees and their users with more personalized information about RTI’s offerings. We may collect, use, share and otherwise process (collectively, “Processing”) data, including personal information, about Licensee’s or its users’ usage of the Software and personal information otherwise provided by Licensee or its users to RTI in accordance with RTI’s Privacy Policy, available at www.rti.com/privacy. Contact RTI at support@rti.com for additional information regarding the scope of information collection, and, if applicable, how to opt out of such collection. BY CLICKING “I ACCEPT” OR BY OTHERWISE DOWNLOADING OR USING THE SOFTWARE, LICENSEE ACCEPTS OUR PRIVACY POLICY, AVAILABLE AT WWW.RTI.COM/PRIVACY, AND THE PROCESSING OF ALL SUCH DATA AND INFORMATION IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE TERMS THEREOF AND HEREOF.
- 18. Additional Terms and Conditions. Additional terms and conditions may apply to certain optional features of the Software and any additional software and services provided by RTI. This includes, but is not limited to, use of RTI’s software tool known as “Connex Chatbot” and the related services and back-end software (collectively, “Connex AI”). Licensee is on notice of and acknowledges that use of Connex AI by Licensee, or any its Members and Licensed Users, is subject to RTI’s Connex Chatbot Terms of Use, available at <https://www.rti.com/general/connex-chatbot-terms-of-use>.
- 19. Entire Agreement. This SLA, LAC(s), and Ordering Documents between RTI and Licensee constitute the complete, final, and exclusive statement of the agreement between RTI and Licensee, which supersedes all proposals, oral or written, and all other communications between the parties relating to the subject matter of this SLA. No terms of any Licensee purchase order nor any waiver, alteration, or modification of the sections of this SLA will be valid, including pre-printed terms and conditions, unless expressly made in writing and signed by a corporate officer of RTI. The term “including” means “including, without limitation”.
- 20. Dispute Resolution. This SLA will be governed by the laws of the State of California except with regard to its choice of law rules. ANY CONTROVERSY OR CLAIM ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS SLA, OR THE BREACH THEREOF, SHALL BE SETTLED BY BINDING ARBITRATION IN SANTA CLARA COUNTY, CALIFORNIA UNDER THE COMMERCIAL ARBITRATION RULES OF THE AMERICAN ARBITRATION ASSOCIATION BY ONE ARBITRATOR APPOINTED IN ACCORDANCE WITH SAID RULES. JUDGMENT ON THE AWARD RENDERED BY THE ARBITRATOR MAY BE ENTERED IN ANY COURT HAVING JURISDICTION THEREOF. NOTWITHSTANDING THE FOREGOING, THE PARTIES MAY APPLY TO ANY COURT OF COMPETENT JURISDICTION FOR INJUNCTIVE RELIEF WITHOUT BREACH OF THIS ARBITRATION SECTION.
- 21. Severability. If any section or sections of this SLA are determined to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable, the validity, legality, and enforceability of the remaining sections of this SLA will not in any way be affected or impaired thereby.
- 22. Assignment. RTI may assign or transfer this SLA, by operation of law or otherwise, to an Affiliate or any third party in connection with a merger, acquisition, reorganization, or sale of all or substantially all of its relevant business to which this SLA relates. Licensee shall not assign, sub-license, or otherwise transfer this SLA, or its rights or obligations hereunder, to any third party, without obtaining RTI’s prior written consent, except to an Affiliate or a third party that is not deemed a competitor of RTI (in RTI’s reasonable determination) in connection with a merger, acquisition, reorganization, or sale of all or substantially all of Licensee’s assets, whether by operation of law or otherwise. Any assignment or transfer of this SLA in violation of the foregoing shall be deemed null and void. Subject to the foregoing, this SLA and each party's obligations herein shall be binding on and inure to the benefit of each party and its permitted assigns and successors.

- 23. Notices. Any notice in connection with this SLA shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been given when received by the party at its address specified in the signature block below, or at such other address as the party has designated in writing to the other party hereto. A receipt evidencing delivery by certified or registered mail or by a recognized commercial courier service shall constitute evidence of receipt. Any notice requiring prompt action shall be contemporaneously sent by facsimile transmission or electronic mail with the receipt confirmed by answer back or similar confirmation of receipt.
- 24. Force Majeure. Except for Licensee's payment obligations, neither party will be liable for any failure or delay in performance under this SLA which is due to any event beyond the reasonable control of such party, including fire, explosion, unavailability of utilities or raw materials, unavailability of components, labor difficulties, war, riot, act of God, export control regulation, laws, judgments, or government instructions.
- 25. Electronic Signatures. Each party agrees that the electronic signatures, whether digital or encrypted, of the parties may be included in this SLA to authenticate this writing and to have the same force and effect as manual signatures. For purposes of this SLA, inclusion of or a reference to this SLA on the applicable Ordering Document may also authenticate this writing and have the same force and effect as manual signatures.
